The Month of All Souls

When we pray for the dead at our Eucharistic celebrations, for whom are we praying?

November, the month of All Souls, is dedicated to praying for the dead in a more focused and intentional manner. Catholics believe that praying for those who have died expresses our continual care and concern for those no longer with us. Every Eucharist celebration includes a remembrance of those who have died. The various eucharistic prayers articulate that remembrance differently. At times we pray simply for "those who have died," while at other times for "those who have died and gone before us marked with the sign of faith." We pray that "these and all who sleep in Christ find in your presence light, happiness and peace." At other times we pray for "our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in the hope of rising again" as we ask God to "bring them and all the departed into the light of your presence." We also pray for "all the dead whose faith is known to you alone."

We do not know how people die in relationship with God. Only God knows. But we firmly believe in God's abundant mercy, grace and love. So, we pray that God's limitless mercy and love shine richly and abundantly upon all who have died.

Elevator Fundraiser Over the course of the last eight weeks St. Peter parishioners and friends have been donating to our parish elevator. The pink envelopes have been coming in steadily to help offset the expenses the parish has incurred for this new construction. At this point we have received over $167,000 in donations for our elevator project. Along with the Faith In the Future Funds allotted for our elevator, we have more than enough to finance the project.

Therefore, after this collection we will consider the Elevator Fundraiser closed. We will not have the "Raise the Elevator, Paint the Walls" fundraiser scheduled for next year. If you still had a contribution that you intended to give, St. Peter Parish encourages you to support another charity or venture.

Thanks to all for your support of this project. All contributions have made it a great success.

Human Concerns News We are extremely grateful for your generous donations of blankets. Our goal was exceeded and we were able to help even more people. The "Sharing" Tree is in the lobby. So far we have a total of 38 families. The color code is GREEN—adults, RED—girl, BLUE—boy and YELLOW—toy, game or "fun" article. Please put the mitten with your name and phone number in the brown metal box next to the tree. All gifts must be received by Sunday, December 13th.

School News This is the last installment of our "State of the School" information. The Seven year Accreditation cycle culminates with our visit in early Fall, 2010. We are very excited to show off our school.

The teachers and School Advisory Council are taking an active role in ensuring that we are fully accredited. Our accreditation timeline will be published on the website with a monthly update that talks about all that we have done. Please join us in singing our praises! At the end of this process, we will have a list of new goals for the next 7 year cycle. These will include goals in Catholic identity, programming, faculty and staff, communications and marketing, facilities, and financial resources and philanthropy. Inspire. Challenge. Engage.

Jaki Grajera, Principal

Holy Communion for the Homebound

Do you know a parishioner sick or disabled who can not come to Church and would like to receive communion? Often we find people who are ailing for months who don't receive the Eucharist because they say "I don't want to bother the priests" or "I'll be better next week." Please give us their names by calling the rectory and we will contact them.

Don't forget to pray for our soldiers!

The Soldiers Corner Do you know of someone who is serving in the military overseas? If so, we would like to add them to our prayer list on the bulletin board in back of Church. Also, we would appreciate a phone call as an update from the families that previously added information to the board. Thank you very much - Bill & Pat Sartori 551-8718.
