3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Do you believe that you are supposed to be Christ in this world today? You're baptized in his name. You call yourself a Christian. You sign yourself with holy water and make the sign of the cross. Do you really believe that the Spirit of God is upon you?

Sometimes it's hard to conceive that. We can get ourselves into a baptismal inferiority complex: I'm not good enough to think that I can be Christ in this world. Only extraordinarily holy people-saints-can be like Christ. Thinking like that can lead to baptismal suicide-drowning in the waters of baptism without ever experiencing the power of the Resurrection. Paul doesn't mince any words this week when he tells the Corinthians, "You are Christ's body." He can say that because we have all been given of the one Spirit.

So, if you're baptized you have the Spirit of God, just like Jesus in today's Gospel. That Spirit of God sends us to bring good news to the poor, "to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free."

WOW! What a task. It sounds impossible. As a matter of fact, it is-if we tried to do it alone. But we don't have to. We can do all those things-and more-because we are united with all the baptized in the one body of Christ, through one Spirit. How we work that out in each community is part of the discernment of the Spirit that takes place, discovering the best ways to use each person's talents and gifts. God's Spirit is given for the common good, and it is in the community of faith that each of us discovers the ways that God wants us to fulfill our baptismal call.

Human Concerns Notes St. Peter's Human Concerns committee recently received several thank you notes.

One was from the Genesis House, Kenosha's home for unwed mothers thanking us for the generous donation of $1,416 (collection from the Feast of the Immaculate Conception). At the time they received the check they were low on operational funds and really appreciated our generosity.

We also received a heartfelt thank you from First Step Services, Kenosha's 24 hour day shelter for the homeless. (monies were donated to them from the tithing portion of our parish Faith in our Future Fund). This donation will help them buy food, hygiene items & clothing, plus offer shower programs and life skill classes. They are so appreciative of our continued support.

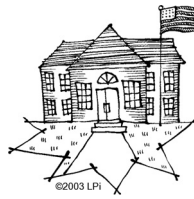

The final note came from Carol Baugartner, the Home & School Liaison for Jefferson Grade School. She wanted to thank us for our donations to the 20 families from their school this past Christmas. The families were thankful for your kindness and generosity. The monetary gifts to Human Concerns at Christmas were up over 50% from last year.

Human Concerns couldn't operate without the generous donations from our parishioners. God bless you all.

Super "Sock-it to me" Sunday

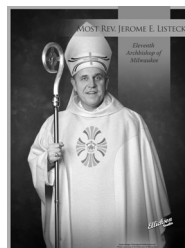

Human Concerns committee is asking folks to donate a pair of socks for a man, woman or child. The socks will then be given to the Homeless Shelter for distribution. Warm, clean, new socks are something we often take for granted. To the homeless, this is an amazing gift. You can bring your sock donations and place them in the grocery cart in the lobby through Sunday February 7. What a great way to "Sock-it" to the cold for our homeless!

School News I have a photo of our boy scouts on top of the milk refrigerator in my outer office. Yesterday, two kindergarten girls were poring over the framed picture. Their conversation went like this..."Ooo look at those scouter boys!" (Remember, they're in kindergarten!) "They're all in uniform!" "There's my brother. He's so proud to be in his uniform. I'm proud of him, too." (proud?! What does a kindergartener know from proud?) "There's mine!" "They do brave things and help people. And pray. They'll save us if we need to." "I love my brother."

Their dialog was so telling of their sense of pride. Pride in oneself and those around you is a major component of self esteem. No one can give self esteem to a child, it has to be built within. When children feel comfortable enough to express pride, they become able to take pride in their actions, words, and deeds! St. Peter School works with parents to help children develop pride in themselves- a pat on the back is nice, but the self-satisfaction of a job well done is the ultimate prize. Join us for our Open House, January 31, 10 am-1 pm. You'll be glad you did! Inspire. Challenge. Engage.

St. Peter's St. Vincent de Paul Conference

is seeking individuals to join our group. We are a charitable organization that helps families in need. We are also looking for a person that would be able to direct the calls that we receive between the hours of 9 am—Noon, Monday through Friday. Answering the phone would be a great ministry for a person who may have challenges that keep them close to home, but who still want to do something to serve others. If you are interested or need further information please call 237-4988 and leave a message. Someone will follow up and call you.

St. Peter's Parish Men's Retreat

will be held February 26—28 at the Redemptorist Retreat Center. Please contact Steve Haug at 697-1034, the Retreat House at 262-567-6900, or email the Center at rrc@redemptoristretreat.org for more information or to register for the retreat.

Day of Reflection

Knights of Columbus St John Neumann Council will host a Day of Reflection on Saturday March 13. The Day of Reflection activities include Mass, reconciliation, group discussions led by area priests and lunch. It will be held at Knights of Columbus Hall and is open to all Catholic men of the parish. For more information please call 657-6751.

2010 Men of Christ Conference

The fourth annual Men of Christ® Conference will introduce the Catholic faith in an authentic, faithful, and powerful way that will change your life forever! Fathers bring your sons – it will be a life changing experience for both of you. There is a great line-up of speakers for the day that will inspire: Archbishop Jerome E. Listecki, Christopher West, Dr. Anthony Esolen, Fr. Clement Machado, and Fr. Frank Hoffman. Please check out the flyers on the bulletin board in lobby or go to www.MenofChrist.net. Also, go to the website and reserve your tickets for the conference. For questions, contact Kurt G. Baumann, 886-2229.

Mt. Carmel Holy Name Society will sponsor a “smokeless smoker” Thursday February 11 6—11 pm in the Parish Hall. Dinner Tickets are $5 and will be available at the door. For more information call Linda at 652-7660.
