16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

People have lots of prayers that they would like answered. Whether it is petitions written into the Book of Intercessions at church, requests made of a priest or a friend, entreaties offered to God before bed, or appeals made in the midst of a crisis, we are always looking for an answer. Sometimes we pray knowing what we want, like a child sitting on Santa's lap with a list of Christmas toys. And many times we pray with the expectation that God will see things our way and give us what we ask for.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus teaches his disciples about prayer. Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer is a little different from Matthew's, but it is essentially the same. In Jesus' methodology, prayer starts with praising God (hallowed be your name) and then asks God to do what God wants (your kingdom come). Only then does prayer move on to posing our requests for God's consideration (give us each day our daily bread). And finally we ask for God's help (forgive us our sins). The Lord's Prayer became so much a part of Christian praying that the Fathers of the Church (early Christian writers like St. Augustine, St. Gregory, and St. Leo the Great) recommended that if a person couldn't remember any other prayer (like a psalm) he or she should just pray the Lord's Prayer instead.

The method of prayer that Jesus lays out for his disciples includes one final aspect—one that we like to forget. Luke's version puts it this way, "for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us." More commonly we say, "as we forgive those who trespass against us." Are we ready to have God act that way toward us? Do we really want God to treat us the way we treat others? That is the challenge, if we continue to pray the Lord's Prayer day after day.

Silent Auction We are still looking for large prizes for the Silent Auction Booth. Do you have a time share or a trip that you are unable to take this year? Would a group like to get together and donate a large item like a gas grille, tools, etc? We want to thank all of you that have made contributions to this booth but we still can use completed baskets or new and unused items to make baskets.

In Gratitude For the past few months we have done a great deal of asking in regards to this festival. We've asked you to sell raffle tickets, donate items, bake, pray, & sign up to volunteer for the many booths. Many of you have responded quite generously. We like to emphasize that this is a family festival because we want to make sure people know that all ages are welcome to attend. It is also a family festival because it takes our whole parish family to make it happen. This festival gives us an opportunity to work side by side with each other, to reach out to the community & to bring in revenue that helps us further our mission as a Church. Thank you for all your support!

School News Blessed are the students whose schools have a clear Catholic identity...they shall know themselves. Kids are forever wondering who they are and where they fit in our tumultuous world. Having the opportunity to attend a Catholic school helps them in that endeavor. St. Peter School helps provide a framework from which kids can operate in a world full of choices. We carry the values that you subscribe to at home into the classroom and help children to impart them to society. Please visit our festival school booth in two weeks to find out how affordable a Catholic education can really be! We believe in educating the whole child and nourishing them spiritually, academically, socially, and emotionally. Come see how a St. Peter education can benefit your child. Call 552-8383 for a personal tour- you'll be glad you did!

Inspire. Challenge. Engage.

Jaki Grajera, Principal

Missing In Action I am sorry to report that I will not be able to attend the St. Peter Family Festival this summer. Fr. Dan Cambra, the provincial superior of the American Marian Province, has asked the members of our Marian Congregation be in Stockbridge MA for several Marian events that will take place in early - mid August. I love our parish festival and I love the Marian Congregation. It is a difficult decision, but this time the Marians won out.

Thank you - St. Peter Church - for your consistent support of the Marians. Over the decades a great relationship has grown between the parish and the Marian Congregation. The festival will do very well under the leadership of Marianne Kraus and the great army of volunteers who make it what it is. We pray for good weather - and save me a plate of kugelis.

Fr. Bill Hayward M.I.C.

Care-Net Walk for Life This year's fundraiser is Saturday, Sept. 18. Such a worthwhile cause --- to help support a resource center whose goal is to convince mothers to carry their babies to term and to teach parents what to expect when this precious one arrives. In the Earn While You Learn Parenting Program, parents earn credits to "purchase" many needed supplies from the Baby Boutique right at CareNet. The topics of classes cover any and all questions/problems new parents might have before and after the birth of their baby. Sponsor forms will be available soon. Please be considering who you will ask to sponsor you in the walk, or you can sponsor someone else who can walk that morning. Thank you!

Theology on Tap We have 2 more meetings July 28 & August 4 at the Boat-house Pub & Eatery at 7 pm. There is no cost to attend & registration is not required. Appetizers and refreshments will be provided! For questions, call Brian Magliocco at 694-6018 x133.
